

Aviation Trainee

AVIAREPS is the worldwide leading Aviation and Tourism Management Group, with exclusive representation of over 70 airlines and 85 other clients in the tourism sector in 34 countries.

Key responsibilities:

- Market research and competition analysis
- Proactive mix of daily business and project work
- Preparation and participation in fairs, fam trips, press journeys, road-shows and product presentations
- Construction and maintenance of data banks as a basis for direct marketing activities, registration of new clients and customer care
- Assistance with planning and execution of direct-marketing as well as sales promotion activities
- Co-ordination of airline specifications together with the reservation management
- Support of media planning

Key skills and knowledge required:

- Graduates in the field of international business, major in aviation or tourism
- Proficient computer skills
- Negotiating skills and sales talent
- Affection for the aviation and tourism industry
- Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills

What we offer:

- International working experience
- A global network
- Great team spirit

Start: 1st of March 2010

Duration: 12 months

Location: New York

Please send in your complete application to:
AVIAREPS AG, Pia Widlewski, Landsberger Str. 155, 80687 Munich, Germany or email to: HR@aviareps.com

For more information visit our website at www.aviareps.com