AVIAREPS with new management in France

Experienced manager Gilles Gosselin to head Paris subsidiary

17 January 2012

AVIAREPS, the world's leading aviation and tourism representation company, welcomes Gilles Gosselin as new General Manager for its subsidiary in France. Gilles will head the Paris team of the international group and steer all business activities in the French market from now on. In addition, he will be responsible for the Moroccan office of AVIAREPS.

AVIAREPS' new General manager is a well-known player in France, holding a vast experience in the industry. Not only has Gilles worked for Corsair for 13 years, but was Managing Director for France and Europe for Air Seychelles until his recent appointment at AVIAREPS.

In France, AVIAREPS currently represents 13 aviation clients, among them online carriers Aer Lingus, Air Arabia Maroc, Asiana Airlines and Malév Hungarian Airlines. In addition, the experienced team holds six tourism accounts. The service portfolio in France includes sales, marketing, PR, reservations & ticketing and financial services.

"We are more than pleased to entrust our French office to the expertise of Gilles Gosselin", says Michael Gaebler, Chairman & CEO of AVIAREPS.

“Gilles is a highly respected manager with a brilliant reputation in the industry. We are sure that he will enthusiastically put up the French activities and do his utmost for our clients.”
